

Golden Hour wardrobe lookbook

Six whimsical, flowing, soft-color looks built from the approved visual direction for a golden-hour performance film.

This presentation consolidates the generated pull references, outfit descriptions, fabric direction, and styling notes into a single PDF for review with talent, wardrobe, and production.

AUGUST 2026
GOLDEN HOUR PALETTE
BOTANICAL · RIVERSIDE

Creative direction

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

A finished presentation lookbook for a golden-hour performance film, covering wardrobe direction with six talent looks as visual pull references.

WHIMSICAL

FLOWING SILHOUETTES

SOFT COLORS

GOLDEN HOUR

BOTANICAL TEXTURE

GENTLE RESTORATION ARC

Overall wardrobe brief: keep the talent visually integrated with the landscape through lightweight fabrics, low-contrast palettes, and silhouettes that move softly in wind, while maintaining enough detail to read clearly on camera.

Palette: oat, cream, blush, butter, sage, terracotta, and sand. Avoid anything too bright, graphic, or trend-driven so the styling stays devotional, intimate, and timeless.

Hair and beauty: luminous skin, minimal makeup, and soft natural texture. The strongest references are the talent's defined features, warm dark-brown complexion, and natural hair volume.

On-set note: Looks 4 and 5 should be treated as styling concepts first; if those frames are revised later, keep the written wardrobe direction below and simply replace the page image.

HOW TO USE THIS PDF

Use each page as a pull reference: hero silhouette first, then fabric, styling, accessories, and scene use. The image shows the intended tone; the notes clarify what to keep flexible while sourcing.

LOOK 01 · GROUNDED OPENER

OAT & OCHRE.

Oat & ochre.

Linen sets in field tones — she disappears into the grass and reappears in the light.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Cropped linen camisole + wide-leg linen trouser in oat. Unbuttoned overshirt (rust or ochre) draped, half-off shoulder. Barefoot or thin leather sandal.

FABRIC DIRECTION

Raw, undyed linen; visible weave; slightly wrinkled — never pressed.

Styling note: Strong opener for the inward scenes. Let the overshirt feel slightly heavier than later looks so the emotional release can read in the progression.

Hair + beauty: Natural coils, loose. Skin glossed with face oil for backlight catch. Bare lash, glossed lip, cheek warmth only.

Accessories: Thin gold hoops. One stacked ring. A single stem of wheat or dried grass in hand.

BEST SCENE USE

Opening reflection / first weighted stillness

Mood words

sun-warmed quiet

held ochre

slow breath

LOOK 02 · LUMINOUS SLIP

SILK, SKIN, SUN.

Silk, skin, sun.

A bias-cut slip so thin the light passes through it — a second skin under golden hour.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Champagne, olive or blush silk slip. Bias-cut, mid-calf. Delicate spaghetti strap, cowl neck. Optional silk scarf tied loose at wrist or waist.

FABRIC DIRECTION

100% silk charmeuse — semi-sheer when backlit. Slight cling in the breeze.

Styling note: Best for intimacy and light-on-skin moments. Keep the slip matte enough to feel elegant rather than overtly glossy.

Hair + beauty: Slicked back low bun or damp, air-dry curls. Dewy skin, flushed cheek, tinted balm on lip.

Accessories: Thin gold ankle chain. Small pearl studs. Bare feet. No bag.

BEST SCENE USE

First light / intimate reflective moments

Mood words

tender

translucent

whispered

peach

held breath

LOOK 03 · VINTAGE SOFTNESS

SEVENTIES, SUN-FADED.

Seventies, sun-faded.

Embroidered cotton, a low-slung flare, the smell of dried flowers and warm dust.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Cream embroidered peasant blouse, bell sleeve, drawstring neckline. Low-rise faded denim flare or amber corduroy flare. Vintage suede belt.

FABRIC DIRECTION

Sun-bleached cotton with hand-embroidery in rust and sage. Softened denim, faded at the thigh.

Styling note: The most fashion-forward option. Great if you want one look with more personality while still staying in the sun-faded palette.

Hair + beauty: Middle part, natural curls loose and full. Sun-kissed cheek, bronzed lid, glossed lip. Nothing that reads "makeup."

Accessories: Long silver + turquoise pendant. Silk head scarf tied under the hair. A small bouquet of wildflowers.

BEST SCENE USE

Garden walk / reconnection to beauty

Mood words

free

sun-faded

wandering

rust

honeyed

LOOK 04 · AIRY ROMANTIC

A DRESS MADE OF DAYLIGHT.

A dress made of daylight.

Prairie silhouette, cotton eyelet, the hem catches the wind — cottagecore without the costume.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Cream cotton eyelet midi or maxi. Puffed short sleeve or off-shoulder tie. Tiered skirt, hem to mid-calf. Optional soft ribbon sash in butter yellow.

FABRIC DIRECTION

Broderie anglaise / eyelet cotton. Featherweight. Slightly translucent when backlit.

Styling note: Keep the silhouette airy and romantic, but skip bows or visible headpieces so attention stays on the talent's face and natural texture.

Hair + beauty: Soft natural hair texture with no bow or headpiece preferred. Baby hairs laid gently. Cheek + lip in the same warm peach. Skin sheer, glowing.

Accessories: No hair accessory. Keep jewelry minimal; optional tiny daisy detail only if it does not compete with likeness.

BEST SCENE USE

Floral detail / airy turning moments

Mood words

daylight

gentle spinning butter

first love

LOOK 05 · WEIGHTLESS IVORY

ALMOST NOT THERE.

Almost not there.

Sheer whites, tulle, a slip beneath — she becomes light passing through cloth.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Sheer white cotton voile blouse over cream silk slip. Long tulle skirt, ivory, layered — moves like water. Or a single sheer white maxi with soft underlayer.

FABRIC DIRECTION

Cotton voile + tulle + silk. Three weights of translucency. Everything catches the light differently.

Styling note: The softness should come from translucency and layering, not accessories. Remove any headband in real-world pulls and prioritize likeness-friendly hair styling.

Hair + beauty: Natural coils or softly pulled-back texture with no headband preferred. Skin luminous, not glossy. Balm on lip. Nothing on lash.

Accessories: No headband. Small gold cross or delicate pendant if needed. Bare arms, bare feet.

BEST SCENE USE

Meditative stillness / luminous inserts

Mood words

angelic

weightless

softly lit

ivory

hushed

LOOK 06 · WATERSIDE RESTORATION

BY THE WATER, UNHURRIED.

By the water, unhurried.

A soft wrap in sage or sand — she wades, the hem darkens, the light forgives everything.

OUTFIT DESCRIPTION

Cotton or lightweight rayon wrap dress in sage green or sun-bleached sand. Deep V, tie at waist, midi length. Or a sarong wrapped over a slip.

FABRIC DIRECTION

Soft, drapery cotton or rayon. Meant to darken when wet at the hem.

Styling note: Ideal for water and final restoration. Choose a hem and fabric that can tolerate moisture while still draping cleanly.

Hair + beauty: Natural texture preserved, luminous skin.

Accessories: Minimal gold, barefoot.

BEST SCENE USE

Water edge / barefoot grounding / final restoration

Mood words

Final wardrobe summary

The strongest overall sequence is: Look 1 for the emotional opening, Look 2 for intimate golden-hour beauty, Look 3 for one fashion-forward garden pass, Look 4 and Look 5 as airy/weightless variants with simplified hair styling, and Look 6 for the riverside close.

If sourcing budget is tight, prioritize one hero dress, one slip, one grounded linen set, and one water-friendly wrap option; the remaining pages can function as texture and silhouette references rather than literal duplicates.

LOOK	PRIORITY PULL PIECES	KEEP FLEXIBLE
01	Oat linen set + ochre layer	Switch camisole/trouser brands if the palette and drape stay right.
02	Bias-cut slip in champagne/blush/olive	Neckline and strap width can vary if the silhouette stays liquid.
03	Peasant blouse + flare bottom	Denim vs corduroy depends on heat and mobility.
04	Cream eyelet dress	Skip bows/headpieces; keep the airy hem and warm cream tone.
05	Sheer ivory layered look	Keep translucency; remove headbands and minimize extras.
06	Sage or sand wrap dress	Choose fabric based on how much water contact the scene needs.